

Adirondacks Senior Open - For Immediate Release

The Adirondack Senior Open opened today with a Charity Pro-Am for the Adirondack Carousel.

The Whiteface Club & Resort in Lake Placid played host to the first annual Adirondack Senior Open Pro-Am presented by Select Sotheby's International Realty. Despite several teams and professionals having to cancel due to the Hurricane that rolled through on Sunday, it was a great turn out and the course was in fantastic condition. All the pros agreed it was one of the best conditioned courses of the year on the Cancun Sunbelt Senior Tour.

The Pro-Am was a hit with local businesses and golfers. One of the Select Sotheby's International Realty Teams made up of John Burke, Chris Sharlo and Mark Constantino came in second place in the team competition with a score of 21 under par playing along side professional Javier Sanchez. Taking top honors with a score of 22 under par was the NBT Bank team of Chris Hayes, Dallas Sutton and Greg MacConnell with professional Gary Odom. While everyone had fun and enjoyed the festivities the real winner was the ADK Carousel. It is expected that over $4,000 was raised from the event. With tournament proceeds, the silent auction and mulligan sales all contributing to this local charity.

Leading the professional division is Champions Tour Player Dave Rummells who flew all the way from Seattle, WA from the Champions Tour Boeing Classic to be here for the Lake Placid event. With no practice and never having seen the course Rummells fired a 7 under par 64 to lead by one stroke over Tom Eubank, the pro-am director at 65. Former Champions Tour Players John Ross and Javier Sanchez both shot 67 to tie for 3rd place.

The Senior Professionals will play round two Wednesday and the final round on Thursday. Tee off time is 8:30 am so come on out and watch the action. All spectators are admitted free of charge.

Come on out to the Whiteface Club and Resort to watch World Class Golf in action!
